Demographic Information - this section asks about your ethnicity, sex, and race

The purpose of collecting this information is to help ensure that all applicants are treated fairly and that the housing needs of communities and neighborhoods are being fulfilled. For residential mortgage lending, Federal law requires that we ask applicants for their demographic information (ethnicity, race, and sex) in order to monitor our compliance with equal credit opportunity, fair housing, and home mortgage disclosure laws. You are not required to provide this information, but are encouraged to do so. The law provides that we may not discriminate on the basis of this information, or on whether you choose to provide it. However, if you choose not to provide the information and you have made this application in person, Federal regulations require us to note your ethnicity, race, and sex on the basis of visual observation or surname. The law also provides that we may not discriminate on the basis of age or marital status information you provide in this application.

Instructions: You may select one or more designations for "Ethnicity" and one or more designations for "Race." If you do not wish to provide some or all of this information, select the applicable check box.

Additional Disclosures

California: An applicant, if married, may apply for a separate account. It is illegal to discriminate in the provision of availability of financial assistance for the purpose of the purchase, construction, rehabilitation of any one to four unit family residences occupied by the owner and for the purpose of the house improvement of any one to four unit family residence by considering:

1. Trends, characteristics or conditions in the neighborhood or geographic area surrounding a housing accommodation, unless the financial institution can demonstrate in the particular case that such consideration is required to avoid an unsafe and unsound business practice; or
2. Race, color, religion, sex, marital status, national origin or ancestry.

It is illegal to consider the racial, ethnic, religious or national origin composition of a neighborhood or geographic area surrounding a housing accommodation or whether or not such composition is undergoing change, or is expected to undergo change, in appraising a housing accommodation or in determining whether or not, or under what terms and conditions, to provide financial assistance. If you have questions about your rights, or if you wish to file a complaint, contact the Lender or the California Department of Corporations at: 320 West 4th St, Ste 750, Los Angeles, CA 90013, or 1390 Market St, Ste 810 San Francisco, CA 94102

New York and Vermont: In connection with your application for credit, a consumer report may be requested in connection with such application. Upon request, you will be informed whether a consumer report was requested, and if such report was requested, informed of the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. If your application is granted, subsequent consumer reports may be requested or utilized in connection with any updates, renewal or extension of the credit for which application was made or for any other legitimate purpose associated with the account.

Ohio: The Ohio laws against discrimination requires that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers and that credit reporting maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

Wisconsin: No provision of a marital property agreement, a unilateral statement under Wisc. Stat. 766.59 or a court decree under Wisc. Stat. 766.70 adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time the credit is granted, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement, or decree of has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the creditor is incurred.
